Basis for Opinion

We have conducted our audit in accordance with the Standards on Auditing (SAs) specified under section 143(10) of the Companies Act, 2013. Our responsibilities under those Standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Company in accordance with the Code of Ethics issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India ("the ICAI") together with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the financial statements under the provisions of the Companies Act, 2013 and the Rules thereunder, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements and the Code of Ethics. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Responsibilities of Management and Those Charged with Governance for the Standalone Financial Results

The Statement, which is responsibly of the Company's management and approved by the Board of Directors have been prepared based on the consolidated financial statement. The company's board of directors is responsible for preparing the consolidated financial records that provide true and fair view of the consolidated net profit and other financial information. This preparation is in accordance with the recognition and measurement principles outlined in the accounting principles generally accepted in India, including the Accounting Standards specified under Section 133 of the Act, read with Rule 7 of the Companies (Accounts) Rules, 2014 and in compliance with Regulation 33 of the Listing Regulations.

The Board of Directors of the jointly controlled entity is responsible for maintaining adequate accounting records in accordance with the Act. Their duties include safeguarding the entity's assets, preventing and detecting fraud and irregularities, selecting and applying appropriate accounting policies and making reasonable and prudent estimates. They are also responsible for designing, implementing and making reasonable and prudent estimates. They are also responsible for designing, implementing and maintaining adequate internal financial records. These controls support the preparation of consolidated financial results. These controls support the preparation of consolidated financial results that present a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, for use by the Company's Board of Directors.

In preparing the consolidated financial results, the respective Board of Directors of the Company and its Subsidiary are responsible for assessing the ability of the Company and Subsidiary to continue as a going concern. This includes disclosing, when applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the Board of Directors either intends to liquidate the Company or to cease operations or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

The respective Board of Directors of the Company and its Subsidiary are also responsible for overseeing the company's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements.

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial results as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with SAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if individually or in aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these consolidated financial results.

As part of an audit in accordance with SAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional scepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial results, whether due to fraud or error. Design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than that from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal controls.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. Under Section 143(3)(i) of the Companies Act, 2013, we are also responsible for expressing our opinion on whether the company has adequate internal financial controls in place and whether such controls are operating effectively.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting. Based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the ability of the Company and its jointly controlled entity to continue as a going concern. If such a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the consolidated financial results or, if the disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However future events or conditions may cause the Company and its jointly controlled entity to cease to continue as a going concern.
 - Evaluate the overall presentation, structure, and content of the consolidated financial results, including disclosures, and assess whether they fairly represent the underlying transactions and events.
 - Obtain sufficient and appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business activities within the Company and its jointly controlled entity to express an opinion on the consolidated financial results. We are responsible for the direction, supervision, and performance of the audit of the consolidated financial results for the entities included in the financial results of which we are the independent auditors. For entities audited by other auditors and included in the consolidated financial results, those other auditors remain responsible for their audits. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

We communicate with those charged with governance of the Company, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance a statement confirming that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence. Additionally, we communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine the matters that were of most significance in the audit of the consolidated financial results of the current period. These are therefore identified as key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure of the matter or, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated due to potential adverse consequences that would reasonably outweigh the public interest benefits of such disclosure.

Other Matters

We did not audit the annual standalone financial statements of one of the subsidiary included in the consolidated financial statements whose financial information (before inter-company eliminations) reflects total assets of Rs.1741.85 Lakhs, Total revenue of Rs. 1439.65 Lakhs and net profit after tax of Rs. 201.04 Lakhs as of 31st March 2025.

These annual standalone financial statements have been audited by other auditor & whose audit reports have been furnished to us. Our opinion is not modified in respect of these matters with respect to our reliance on the work done by & the reports of the other auditors.
