MEDIA RELEASE

Delaplex enters into strategic partnership with a global IT Company Headquartered at California, USA to deliver cutting-edge Modern Data Management Solutions

Nagpur, September 17, 2025 – Delaplex Ltd., a provider of high-impact technology solutions that transform business operations, is pleased to announce a strategic partnership with a global leader, effective today. The partnership aims to expand market reach and deliver cutting-edge modern data management solutions. This collaboration combines Delaplex's technological expertise and platform ownership with the global leader's exceptional capabilities in marketing, sales, and customer engagement.

Partnership Overview

In line with Delaplex's vision to enhance its market presence and deliver innovative solutions, this partnership will focus on the Delaplex Master Data Management (MDM) solution. By joining forces, Delaplex will provide a comprehensive, integrated approach to modern data management that will empower businesses to scale and govern their data seamlessly.

Key Highlights of the Partnership

- Purpose: This collaboration will focus on delivering and scaling the Delaplex MDM solution. This partnership blends technological expertise and platform ownership with effective marketing, sales, and customer engagement strategies to optimize the go-to-market approach and provide an exceptional customer experience.
- Roles & Responsibilities:
 - The tech partner will serve as the Sales and Go-to-Market (GTM) partner, managing go-to-market campaigns, awareness initiatives, and lead generation for the MDM solution.
 - Delaplex will act as the Technology Partner, leading technology enablement, R&D, SaaS management, development support, implementation, scaling teams, training, and pre-sales support.
- Benefits: The partnership is expected to drive enhanced global GTM and sales capabilities, strengthen Delaplex's technology offerings, increase revenue, improve customer satisfaction, and further expand market share in the rapidly growing modern data management space.

Complementary Strengths

This strategic alliance will also allow Delaplex to leverage global leader's expertise in key areas, including Cybersecurity, Intelligent Automation, Digital Engineering, UX/UI, and Design Creativity, along with managed support services. Together, both companies aim to establish a dominant position in the modern data management industry.
